

Green Unionism

IWW Environmental Unionism Caucus

- Debunk the "jobs versus the environment" myth;
- Learn why the campaign to oppose crude-by-rail and the fight by rail workers against single-employee train crews are part of the same campaign;
- Find out why the union officials who support Keystone XL and other earth destroying projects are not representative of the labor movement or working class;
- Know why some ENGOs are insufficient to bring about revolutionary transformation;
- Discover why in order to defend the earth, we must oppose capitalism and build a transformative movement that builds a new society within the shell of the old;
- Explore the historical roots of labor and environmentalist coalitions;
